Encourage research, fact-finding, and discovery with an engaging encyclopedia created specially for ages 10 to 17. Compton's by Britannica, with extensive revisions for 2008, has thousands of updates to cover today's world plus hundreds of stunning new photographs and revised maps, providing students with the accurate information they need for school projects and homework. Curious minds can find the facts they need fast, and they will also enjoy the set's unique features—such as Fact Finders and Here and There—that will keep them inquiring, uncovering, and learning.

REACHING STUDENTS WITH THE TOPICS THEY NEED

All ages will appreciate new and updated articles on topics including Chile, Simon Cowell, the Earth, golf, Mexico, the Moon, popular music, United Kingdom, and more.

THOUSANDS OF GRAPHICS IMPROVE LEARNING

An abundance of charts and graphs provide handy visual summaries of key information, while the photos and images hold students' interest.

CONVENIENT ORGANIZATION

Designed with students in mind, Compton's is easy to use. Fact Finders provide a list of related articles, and Further Resources contain other options for students to use after they've explored the encyclopedia. Longer articles include a Table of Contents, Words to Remember, Questions to Think About, and more.

A SOURCE OF IDEAS FOR PROJECTS

Help students brainstorm topics for projects or research. Here and There organizes each volume by subject so that students have several topics to review, such as arts or living things, before focusing on a specific subject.

“...international in scope...fabulous gems are found in most every volume. Geographical entries contain the most often requested information...”
