

TITLES KIDS ARE TALKING ABOUT

Books To Change Our World

Elementary

Poe Won't Go
by Kelly DiPucchio

RL 2.0 IL P-2

When an elephant plants himself in the road and refuses to move, the people of Prickly Valley try all sorts of methods to get him to go--but one thoughtful little girl works up the courage to do what no one else has done: ask him.

Middle School

The Lost Girl
by Anne Ursu
RL 3.0 IL 3-6

Iris has always been the grounded, capable, and rational one; Lark has been inventive, dreamy, and brilliant--and from their first moments in the world together, they've never left each other's side. Everyone around them realized early on what the two sisters already knew: they had better outcomes when they were together.

When fifth grade arrives, however, it's decided that Iris and Lark should be split into different classrooms, and something breaks in them both.

High School

Vanishing Star
(Truly Devious, Vol. 2)
by Maureen Johnson

Stevie's willing to do anything to get back to Ellingham, be back with her friends, and solve the Truly Devious case--even if it means making a deal with the despicable Sen. Edward King. And when Stevie finally returns, she also returns to David: the guy she kissed, and who lied about his identity--Edward King's son.

But larger issues are at play. Where did the murderer hide? What's the meaning of the riddle Albert Ellingham left behind? And what, exactly, is at stake in the Truly Devious affair? The Ellingham case isn't just a piece of history--it's a live wire into the present.
