

Most Recent Additions To Popular Series

New additions to Series Tracker for February!

As you know, series fiction is a great way to draw K-12 students into a lifelong reading habit--and our FREE Series Tracker tool can help! Series Tracker allows you to easily keep track of new additions to popular Elementary, Middle School, and High School series, making it a valuable literacy ally. Plus, new books and series are added regularly. This month's additions include great titles from the series below:

Beep and Bob

Geronimo Stilton Graphic Novels

Legacy Of Orisha

Stink

The Bone Witch

Wings Of Fire: Graphic Novel

Ana & Andrew are always on an adventure! They live in Washington, DC with their parents, but with family in Savannah, Georgia and Trinidad, there's always something exciting and new to learn about African American history and culture. From the National Museum of African American History and Culture to the shores of Trinidad, Ana & Andrew discover something new all over the world.

In this #ownvoices series, author Christine Platt, Managing Director of the Antiracist Research and Policy Center at American University, expertly presents information from a child's perspective, making it accessible for young readers while retaining historical accuracy. Calico Kid is an imprint of Magic Wagon, a division of ABDO.

What is red, blue, gold, and furry all over? You guessed it--Sesame Street!

Elmo, Cookie Monster, Big Bird, and the rest of the gang are celebrating Sesame Street's 50th anniversary this year! Your young readers can join in the celebration with these fun, educational titles!

In this first installment starring Greg Heffley's good-natured best friend, Rowley (the "awesome kid" of the title) agrees to be Greg's biographer--but he's not a good fit for the job, and the biography turns into a hilarious mess.
